

Press Release

36 Children introduced to History & built heritage

Kingstown, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Some (36) thirty six children from the Edinboro & Ottley Hall Community were given the opportunity to learn about the social history and built heritage of their community from the 25th July to the 3rd of August 2022. This was in the form of a Summer Programme which was held under the theme Loving and Caring for Our Community.

Participants visiting the relics of one of the Bungalows

The participants were engaged in information gathering on such aspects of the community's history like King Ja Ja, the Bungalows, Fort Charlotte, and unique community names such as Monte Bello Estate, Cox Heath and Ross Castle.

Participants were guided by facilitators who guided them in the construction of their family trees as well as to become engaged the recycling of some everyday trash. Table mats, baskets, toys and candle stands are some of the items which have been produced.

The Summer Programme was organised by members of the Edinboro / Ottley Hall community group. The Summer Programme was convened at the Pan yard in Edinboro.

A member of the organising community group observes baskets made from toilet paper rolls.