OECS Leaders to Engage United States Official

Prime Minister Dr. Ralph Gonsalves, along with other leaders from members states of the Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS), will meet with US Secretary of State Marco Rubio in Washington next week.

The meeting is expected to take place on Tuesday, May 6 and will discuss issues directly related to the region including tariffs, immigration policies and other issues of collective regional importance.

Recent tariff proposals by the United States will have a direct impact on the countries of the region, creating supply chain disruptions and inevitably, a higher cost of goods for consumers.

From Washington, the Prime Minister is expected to travel to London for a meeting to discuss an investment opportunity, which he says will “impact the country for the next five years”.
