HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY -FINAL SITTING IN KINGSTOWN

The final sitting of the House of Assembly at the 200-year-old building in Kingstown, will take place on June 1st, 2023.

After the special final sitting, Parliament will convene at the new temporary headquarters in Calliaqua, built at a cost of over EC 4 million dollars.

This temporary headquarters will later be converted into a students' hostel upon completion of the new Parliament building and Hall of Justice at Beachmont.

In the meantime, “historically sensitive” restorative work will begin on the parliament building and court house in Kingstown.

Construction on the new Parliament and Hall of Justice at Beachmont is expected to commence later this year. Approximately 4.5 million dollars will be spent on advancing relocation, restoration, design and construction related to the new parliament building and court complex.
