Sandals St. Vincent and the Grenadines Opens Luxury Waiting Lounge at Blue Lagoon

Sandals St. Vincent and the Grenadines has officially opened a new luxury waiting lounge at Blue Lagoon, Ratho Mill, providing Butler Suite guests with a five-star space to relax and enjoy amenities while awaiting their sea transfer to the Sandals Resort in Buccament. The lounge is part of Sandals' continued investment in the destination, designed to enhance the visitor experience and showcase the country's unique land and sea transfer options.

General Manager of Sandals St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Tamon Allen, welcomed guests and praised the team behind the project whose hard work over the past few months helped bring the facility to life.

Allen explained that the lounge reflects Sandals' commitment to innovation and excellence in the Caribbean, adding that it is just one step in a series of upgrades for the resort. He highlighted plans for the second phase of expansion this November, which will include 24 new plunge pools, further enhancing the guest experience and reinforcing Sandals' dedication to quality service.

Minister of Tourism, Hon. Dr. Kishore Shallow, commended the Sandals team for their vision, planning, and execution, noting that even before seeing the finished lounge, he expected the high standards synonymous with the Sandals brand. He added that Sandals continues to inspire not only St. Vincent and the Grenadines but the wider Caribbean region.

Dr. Shallow emphasized that the new facility strengthens the country's tourism product and supports the ongoing elevation of visitor experiences. He also highlighted the strong partnership between the Government of St. Vincent and the Grenadines and Sandals Resorts, expressing confidence in the future growth and expansion of the brand in the country.

Guests at the lounge now have the option to enjoy the natural beauty of St. Vincent via land or sea transfer, with a scenic boat ride of approximately 20 minutes to reach the resort. Sandals continues to ensure that every step of the guest journey, from arrival to departure, reflects luxury, comfort, and world-class service.
